

Resignation Acceptance Letter

Date: 08-May-2026

Name of Employee: Chowdam Gopi
Employee ID: 207104
Designation: Engineer II
Department: Digital Engineering
Location: Bengaluru

Dear Chowdam,

This is to acknowledge the receipt and acceptance of your resignation from the services of Apexon India Private Limited (["Company"]), as per the resignation raised on 07-Apr-2026 your last working date will be 08-May-2026.

You are required to handover all Company assets by last working Date. You will receive your relieving-cum-experience letter upon completion of all no-dues formalities after settlement of all the dues (if any). The full and final settlement, including any pending dues, will be processed within 45 working days from your last working day. On settlement of outstanding dues (if any) in favour of Apexon India Private Limited you will within 3 working days, receive your relieving-cum-experience-letter.

Your relieving-cum-experience letter will be emailed to your personal email address, which you have updated on the Company's HRMS tool.

We take this opportunity to remind you that in your Employment Agreement dated 29-Sep-2025 you have continuing obligations including non-solicitation, non-compete, confidentiality and intellectual property. These obligations continue to be in force, as in your Employment Agreement, post your employment tenure at Apexon India Private Limited and we emphasize that you comply with these obligations.

You shall continue to keep all organizational and client information confidential, retain no such data after separation in any form, and confirm that all assets, access, and information have been returned or securely deleted. You should not use or disclose any information for unauthorized purposes post-employment and must report any information security incidents identified after separation. You shall agree to provide reasonable cooperation if required for incident clarification and remain bound by all applicable confidentiality and data protection obligations, with breaches subject to legal or contractual action.

We wish you the very best in your future endeavors.

Thanking you.

Sincerely,

For Apexon India Private Limited

Yatendra Vijay
Admin & HR Leader (HRBP)

